NO SUNDAY LIQUOR

New Yorkers May Be Brought Under Such a Law.

MOTELS AND CLUBS NOT EXEMPTED

Senator Raines Says the Present Excise Measure is Defective and That Severe Restrictions May Yet Be Adopted.

New York, Dec. 3.—Senator Raines, father of the present excise law in New York state, said, in an interview, that the legislative investigation of the operation of the new measure had already demonstrated to his mind that there are three vital weaknesses in the present liquor tax law. "These were, first, what constitutes a meal, under the law; second, what is the meaning of the word 'guest,' and, third, what constitutes a social club. We have appreciated for some time the fact that all evasions hinged on these three points and that these would have to be strengthened or changed entirely. The investigation has only emphasized my previous belief." "Does the inquiry so far show who has been to blame?" "Not entirely. I don't know that any official is to blame especially. The fault seems to lie with the law itself. The committing magistrates probably have excuses for failing to convict, because different views may be taken of what a meal means." Senator Raines then intimated strongly that the result of his present investigation might be an entirely new law, which would absolutely forbid the sale of liquor anywhere in the state on Sunday. Under this law not even bona fide clubs and hotels could sell drinks with meals. "It may be that we shall have to frame a new law altogether, shutting down on everybody," said Senator Raines. "I don't say that there will be such a law proposed, but it would seem that to prevent a greater evil a lesser evil must be enacted into a law. Perhaps the only way to block evasions by saloons and clubs is to tighten the grip on the real article. That would be a hardship to the honest keepers, and there would be a howl, but that may be the only way to put a stop to Sunday liquor selling." Then he said that nobody could guess what the report of the committee would be or what action the legislature would take if a new measure was introduced.

New Commercial Enterprise.

New York, Dec. 3.—The Pacific company, with a capital of $20,000,000, owned by some of the most substantial business men and financiers of this city, has been formed for the purpose of bringing the Latin-American countries of South America into closer business relations with the United States. The undertaking is a purely commercial enterprise, the new company planning to do a shipping and general mercantile business on the Pacific coast and develop mines and other properties in the southern hemisphere. None of the stock is for sale.

Connecticut Presidential Electors.

Hartford, Dec. 3.—The republican electors of president and vice-president met at the state secretary's office yesterday in compliance with the state law. J. Denning Perkins of Litchfield was elected chairman of the delegation, and Robinson B. Hoffman, chief clerk in the secretary's office, was appointed clerk. The electors then adjourned to meet Monday, January 11, when they will meet as required by the United States law, and cast their ballots for McKinley and the art.

FEAR A RACE WAR.

Slight Provocation May Cause a Renewal of the Riots at Trenton.

Trenton, Dec. 3.—Although there has been no renewal of the riot of the unemployed at the site of the new reservoir since the sheriff read the riot act yesterday afternoon after two men had been shot, it is believed that the slightest provocation may precipitate a race war between the Italians, who are working for very low wages, and the Americans, Irish and negroes, who demand a higher rate. Among the rioters arrested is Blime Salvator, who did the shooting. Wm. Lenox, shot in the arm, is only slightly injured. The man who was shot in the side was carried off by his companions before his name or the extent of his injuries could be ascertained. The other injuries inflicted amount to only slight cuts and bruises. To-day no one, unless employed on the work or who has business at the reservoir, is allowed on the grounds.

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON.

Uncle Sam's Floating Terror To Leave for Winter Rendezvous Dec. 15.

New York, Dec. 3.—The date upon which the ships of the north Atlantic squadron will leave the anchorage at Tompkinsville, S. I., and sail for the winter rendezvous at Hampton Roads has been definitely decided upon as Dec. 15. Further orders have been received at the navy yard calling for great haste in the work of completing the repairs on the ships of the fleet and those which are not ready at the date named will be left behind. The repairs on the warships at this station are now so far advanced that, with the exception of the battleship Texas, it is confidently predicted that all the ships in the fleet will answer Admiral Bunce's signals to sail on the date named. The pride of the fleet, the first-class battleship Indiana, has passed out of the hands of the workmen and is now ready for sea orders at Tompkinsville.

Mrs. Irwin's Trial Removed to Baltimore.

Baltimore, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Emma Irwin, indicted as an accessory to the murder of her husband, James J. Irwin, of which crime George Matthews was found guilty at La Plata, Md., last week, will be tried in Baltimore. Eleven jurors had been accepted in the trial of the woman at La Plata when her attorney created a sensation by filing a petition for removal. The court granted the request. Matthews was removed to the Baltimore jail last night as it was feared an attempt would be made to lynch him at La Plata.

Mrs. Beecher Recovering.

Stamford, Conn., Dec. 3.—Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, who sustained serious injuries at the residence of her son-in-law, the Rev. Samuel Seville, where she was spending the Thanksgiving season, was much improved this morning and was able to sit up. Some time early on Sunday morning, Mrs. Beecher, who is 54 years old, had a fall. Her head struck on some sharp point and a long gash was made. She was found later by members of the family lying in a pool of blood.

New York School Expenditures.

A bany, Dec. 3.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Salinger's annual report which will be submitted to the state legislature shows that the state expended during the school year terminating July 1 last both as a state government and through its political subdivisions, $1,179,910 for education purposes, as against $24,970,000 during the preceding year, an increase of 46.4 per cent over that period of the year.

Secretary Carlisle's Report.

Mr. Hanna and Henry C. Payne Going to Washington.

WILL CONSULT MAJOR MCKINLEY FIRST

The National Chairman Determined To Make the Inaugural Ceremonies the Grandest Ever Witnessed in This Country.

Cleveland, Dec. 3.—Henry C. Payne and other prominent republican leaders are expected to arrive here this afternoon and evening to confer with Mark Hanna and attend to republican national committee business. It is probable that they will go to Canton to discuss with Major McKinley plans for the latter's inauguration next March, the entire details of which are in the hands of Mr. Hanna. Messrs. Hanna and Payne will go to Washington to-morrow or Saturday to make arrangements for hotel accommodations for the Ohio delegation and attend to matters pertaining to the reception of the president-elect. President Cleveland may also be consulted as to the exact method he intends to pursue in his last official act before his retirement and the details of the inauguration procession will also likely be looked over. Mr. Hanna intends to make the inauguration of President McKinley one of the grandest demonstrations ever witnessed in this city, as regards numbers, decorations and impressiveness of ceremony. Chairman Hanna expects officials from every state to be present, as well as countless thousands of private citizens of every walk in life. While the main points of every presidential inauguration are exactly similar every four years, there are numberless minor details which may be elaborated at will, and the republican national chairman intends to make the most of the opportunities presented to him to cause the event to be written down in history as the greatest one of the kind ever seen in this or any other country.

THE SPANISH CABINET.

Rumor of a Pending Crisis Given No Credence in Washington.

Washington, Dec. 3.—Respecting the rumors of a cabinet crisis at Madrid, it is regarded in official circles here as not unlikely that one or two members of the cabinet might retire, but this act would be in no sense significant. If Senor Canovas, the Spanish premier, or the Duke Tetuan, the minister of war, should resign, that would be regarded as significant, and grave consequences might follow. It is authoritatively stated, however, that each of these gentlemen is not only well satisfied to remain in the cabinet and continue the present vigorous policy of the government, but they are equally acceptable to the Spanish people with whom they are not only popular but highly esteemed as well.

New Jersey Divorce Law Unconstitutional.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 3.—Justice Barkalow has filed an opinion in the court of errors and appeals, declaring the divorce law of 1891 unconstitutional. ## MAY BE SWEEPED AWAY

Chippewa Falls, Wis., in Great Danger from Floods.

RESIDENTS ALMOST PANIC-STRICKEN

A Portion of the Town Now Inundated. The Ice Gorge Forty Feet High and the Waters Rising a Foot an Hour.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Dec. 3.—The situation grows worse here hourly. It is of record that fifty years ago an ice-gorge formed near here and that when it went out in the spring it swept the valley clean to the Mississippi. There were no houses then, but great trees were cut off, banks swept and devastation followed. If the weather is not just right from now until spring history may repeat itself—not in the uninhabited, wooded country, but in a valley lined with farming homes and rich, prosperous cities. Eau Claire might be swept out of existence by such a flood and the loss would be incalculable and terrible. All this is a possibility, perhaps probability. If the weather should moderate now, or should the force of the back water become so great as to loosen or break the jam of ice and logs, packed almost impenetrably between this city and Eau Claire, the calamity would come now. With the mercury at zero the suffering from the flood would be beyond the power of imagination. The people are almost terror-stricken. The river presents a terrible appearance. The ice-gorge is forty feet high and backing the water on the city at the rate of a foot per hour. The destruction of property is reaching enormous proportions. The loss is already nearly a million dollars and the indications are that it will be much greater before the waters subside. Fifty business structures in this city have been abandoned and the thoroughly alarmed people are making every effort to leave as little for the incoming flood to destroy as they possibly can. Two hundred teams and drays rushed hither and thither all last night and the streets are littered with various kinds of merchandise which spilled over the sides and ends of the overloaded wagons as they were hurried to places of safety. The spring street merchants who had stored goods in second floors were compelled to again move, and to-day there is not a dollar's worth of material remaining. Business is abandoned and the city is in a state of tumult. Dynamite is being used to break the jam. The Wisconsin Central railroad depot has been carried away.

GOD AND THE KAISER.

A Surprising Incident in the Reichstag Regarding the Itis Disaster.

Berlin, Dec. 3.—An incident took place in the reichstag during a debate with reference to a criticism by one of the members to the effect that the sailors of the gunboat Itis ought to have prayed to God instead of cheering the kaiser as the vessel went down. In reply to this Vice-Admiral Hollman, secretary of the navy, said that when the sailors had the emperor before their eyes they had their God before their eyes, and they thought of the authority which God set over them. These remarks met with cynical cheering from the radicals and socialists.

Houston of Enfield; Clayton H. Case of Hartford; Charles W. Pickett of New Haven, and Charles E. Turner of Waterbury.

Cabinet Gossip.

Canton, O., Dec. 3.—A cabinet boom from the Pacific slope has reached here. The new possibility, who is being energetically discussed, is Judge J. A. Waymire of San Francisco. His friends are pushing him for the post of secretary of agriculture. The belief that Mr. Hanna has agreed to accept the position of secretary of the navy is strengthened by developments to-day, and there is more talk than ever about Nelson A. Dingley of Maine for secretary of the treasury.

DEFAUDED MANY MERCHANTS.

An Important Arrest Made at Pottsville by a United States Marshal.

Pottsville, Pa., Dec. 3.—Charles Rubinsky of the firm of Rubinsky & Freedman of Shenandoah, Pa., was arrested last evening by Deputy United States Marshal Meyers, attached to the Philadelphia division, charged with making illegal use of the mails. He, with Harry, Charles and Abe Yarrow-sky, have, it is said, for five or six years defrauded merchants in Philadelphia, Chicago, New York and Boston out of many thousands of dollars worth of goods. Their method, it is alleged, was to order goods through the mails which upon arrival were stored in some out of the way place and were disposed of at leisure, the shipper never being able to discover its whereabouts. They operated under various names. The first charge against the firm was made in May last and ever since the postoffice officials have been working on the case.

Canton, O., Dec. 3.—The rumors from Washington and elsewhere that Gen. C. H. Grosvonor of Ohio has been asked by Major McKinley's friends in congress to become a candidate for the speakership against Mr. Reed are unfounded. Gen. Grosvonor will not be a candidate for speaker, and the friends of Major McKinley do not want him or anyone else to oppose Mr. Reed.

TURMOIL IN HAVANA

Situation in the Cuban Capital the Day Weyler Departed.

BUSINESS PRACTICALLY SUSPENDED

Desperate Efforts of the Officials To Prevent Information Reaching the Rebels—Numerous Spies of the Latter at Every Turn.

New York, Dec. 3.—The Ward line steamship Yumuri, from Havana, brought news of the revolution which has greatly encouraged the Cubans in this city. The Yumuri was in the harbor of Havana on the day of the second departure of Capt.-Gen. Weyler in quest of Maceo. Among her first cabin passengers was a Cuban who had escaped to Mexico, and who had come on a secret mission to the junta. He said that when the Yumuri left Havana everything was in confusion in the city. Soldiers were tramping through the streets and officers were dashing about with orders. The most rigid watch was kept on persons leaving the city for fear that news of the movements of the Spanish army would reach the insurgents. All the efforts of the Spaniards to prevent this information from reaching the Cubans, however, were futile, he said. The Cubans knew Weyler's every move. They had spies distributed all through the city and the Spaniards had no means of detecting them. These spies were in constant communication with the armies of Gomez and Maceo. Business in Havana was at a standstill when the Yumuri sailed. Half the stores were shut up and scarcely anybody except Spanish soldiers were to be seen in the streets. Persons suspected of insurrectionary leanings were watched by spies and were in constant danger of being thrown into prison. Several weeks before the Cuban mentioned above left Havana several young men were arrested and locked up. The government affected to search for them when appealed to by friends of the prisoners, and finally made public the news that they had escaped past the sentinels and had gone to join the insurgents.

Aid from Havana Bankers.

In a letter to a Cuban in New York which escaped the Spanish censors, is the statement that a number of Havana bankers who have hitherto held aloof from the revolution, have sent word to Gomez and Maceo that they would let them have money to buy arms with, if they would hurry the war to a conclusion. These bankers, it is said, are very much annoyed at Weyler's mismanagement of affairs and in consequence their business has been very much impaired. The letter goes on to say that it is believed in Havana that certain Spanish bankers have been secretly aiding the revolutionists for some time. It is said that from this source Maceo and Gomez got the money with which they have been buying arms and ammunition.

Electrician Linn's Good Work.

Austin Aguiro, who left this city one of the recent expeditions, has written an account of Weyler's recent defeat near Pinar del Rio to friends here. Aguiro is in Maceo's cavalry and took part in the battle in the Rubi hills. He pays a high tribute to the skill of the young American electrician, Linn. The dynamite scheme which proved so destructive to the Spanish soldiery was his idea. He manipulated it in the battle. Aguiro says that there are a number of Texas cowboys, who have seen service in the Rio Grande, with Maceo's cavalry. They proved themselves to be daring soldiers. The Cubans are always on the alert, and when they catch detached bodies they invariably destroy them. A great many of the Spaniards captured have joined the revolution. They say that Spain's commissariat has been so frightfully mismanaged that half the time they did not get enough to eat. This was due to the peculations of the Spanish officers. The Cubans, on the other hand, are living well. The people of Pinar del Rio are thoroughly patriotic and contribute to the support of the Cuban soldiers. A Cuban patriot who was captured in the hills of Matanzas by the Spaniards and taken to Havana escaped from prison and made his way to Gen. Maceo's forces. He said that it was a favorite amusement of his Spanish guards to come into the prison and spit in the faces of the Cuban prisoners.

Again Watching the Dauntless.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The treasury department has the steam tug Dauntless at Jacksonville, Fla., again under surveillance. It is alleged she has been engaged in several filibustering expeditions to Cuba, and Minister de Loma fears she is again preparing to lend aid to the Cuban insurgents. The revenue cutters Morrill, Winona and Pontwell, which are in Florida waters, have been ordered to keep a lookout for the Dauntless and watch her movements.

DAILY ARGUS.

C. MACARDELL, JR.,

PUBLISHER.

GEORGE H. THOMPSON, Editor.
J. F. ROBINSON, City Editor.
E. E. KILPATRICK, City Editor.

THURSDAY, DEC. 3, 1896.

Those in this city who believe in the periodicity of accidents or that "bad luck comes in streaks," have had their faith strengthened by the recent series of fires.

The squabble over the receivership of the Murray Hill Bank is not calculated to make converts to the doctrine preached in the late campaign that judges are infallible and that courts and their orders are above criticism. Judge Dickey's first appointment of Odell and Hobbs as receivers looked like an attempt to reward politicians for political favors at the sacrifice of the interests of the depositors and stockholders in the wrecked bank and his second appointment of his political friends, after they had been turned out by the Appellate Division, looks very much like a determination to carry his point in spite of the appellate judges. And it may be added that the situation is not at all improved by the suspicion that personal feeling between Judge Brown and Judge Dickey and Ben Odell enters into and complicates the middle.

The further Senator Raines pursues his inquiry the more clearly does he make it appear that the Raines law not only opens wide the door for Sunday selling, but that its enforcement is impossible because of the severity of the penalties which it imposes and which make juries reluctant to indict and still more reluctant to convict. Evidence given, yesterday, also tended to show that there was much more drunkenness under the Raines law than under the law which it repealed. W. E. Johnson, an employee of The Voice, a prohibition organ, testified that replies to a circular letter addressed to the chief of police of fifteen cities in the State showed that there had been an increase of seventy-four per cent. in the arrests for drunkenness in September as compared with March, the last month under the old law. Senator Raines frankly admits the necessity of amending the law in many respects, and is particularly outspoken in regard to his intention to stop Sunday selling in the "take" hotels and clubs even if, in order to do so, it is necessary to take from legitimate hotels the right to serve drinks to their guests.

"MOSE" IS SICK

A Livery Stable Horse Takes His Place in Eagle's Patrol Team.

"Mose," one of Eagle's patrol team, has been sick for several days. He did duty at the three noon, Tuesday night, but on his way to have been taken out of his stall. Yesterday he was placed on the sick list and a horse belonging to J. H. Horton was substituted for him. The new horse was given a shot of drill, yesterday, and when the alarm was sounded, this morning, came out of his stall and took his place beside "Ben" in very good style.

"Ben" is accustomed to boss "Mose" and attempted to boss the new horse, this morning, but the "skate," as the Eagles call him, rebelled and for the first time since he has been a fire horse "Ben" wasn't the boss horse in Eagle's patrol team.

The "skate" did most excellent service, this morning, and will be kept in the team until "Mose" has recovered.

Commended by Manager Taylor, of Newburgh.
Horne W. Corey, Manager, Middletown, N. Y.

If your patrons are desirous of seeing a really first class attraction, you need have no hesitancy in writing over your own signature commending your Saturday night production, "In Fun Virginia." This is one of the best of all the way plays. So well were Newburgh theatregoers pleased with the presentation of this drama, I am endeavoring to secure a return date or the benefit of a local society. I congratulate you on securing a date for this company. I note that Fanny Rice "At the French Ball" is with you on the 8th. She is bound to appear at Newburgh on the 9th. These two attractions ought to draw a fine lot of people. Yours,

HYMENEAL.

Deuel-Corkey.

Arthur Deuel, an employee of the State Hospital, and Miss Nellie, daughter of Conductor Joseph H. Corkey, of the O. and W., were married at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church at 8 o'clock, last night, by Rev. Frank Arthur Heath.

Mr. Deuel is a member of Waalkill Engine Co., and his intended marriage, which he supposed was a profound secret known only to the families of the interested parties, in some way leaked out, and a large number of the members of the company were assembled in the street in front of the parsonage when Mr. and Mrs. Deuel came out of the house. The Waalkills were provided with tin pans, horns and other noise making contrivances, which they used to the best advantage when the bride and groom made their appearance.

It was a boisterous but very hearty way of showing their interest in Mr. Deuel and his bride. The piercing cold wind favored the victims of this demonstration and it did not last long. Mr. and Mrs. Deuel were soon permitted to pass out of the gate, receive the congratulations of Waalkills and return to the home of the bride's parents.

Davey-Miller.

From Our Goshen Correspondent.

A very pretty wedding took place, last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Miller, on Spring street, this village, when their daughter, Miss Ella May, was united in marriage to Irving W. Davey, of Middletown.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. G. Oakley, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church, New York, formerly pastor of the Goshen Methodist Church. The bride's dress was white brocade silk, trimmed with embroidered chiffon and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white bridal roses.

Miss Ida A. Oakley, daughter of the officiating clergyman, was maid of honor. Her dress was light blue Lanesdowne. She carried yellow tea roses. Little Miss Helen Carver, of Middletown, was flower girl, and Master Harold Holt, of Havenstraw, page.

The best man was Fred Lendrum, of Middletown, and the ushers Louis Davey, of Middletown, and Henry J. Miller, Jr., brothers of the groom and bride.

Miss Minnie Folger played the wedding march.

Nearly two hundred guests were present. A special car on the electric road was provided for the accommodation of those from Middletown. The house was beautifully decorated by John Logan, of the Napkoll conservatories.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, which are both useful and ornamental.

After being absent for a week on a wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Davey will begin house-keeping in a house in Middletown, which Mr. Davey has just completed and made ready for his bride. The Argus joins with many friends of the young couple in congratulations and good wishes.

Richardson-Brink.

Miss Jennie Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Brink, and William G., son of ex-Senator W. P. Richardson, of Goshen, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 39 South street, this city, at 2 o'clock, this afternoon, in the presence of about seventy of their relatives and friends.

The parlors were elaborately decorated with palms and cut flowers by Belding and the young couple stood during the ceremony in a bower of flowers and palms in the rear parlor.

As the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Miss Louise Whitlock, of Brooklyn, Miss Grace Mildred Birch, of New York, maid of honor, entered the parlor followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her father. They were met at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Philip Whitlock.

The bride wore a tailor-made gown of brown French broadcloth.

The maid of honor's dress was of brown cloth with blue satin trimmings. After the ceremony and the congratulations a wedding supper was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were then driven to the Erie depot and took train 2 for New York. They expect to start for Texas in a few days and will spend the winter there.

The bride, who is very popular in Middletown society, received many beautiful and valuable presents. Guests from elsewhere than Middletown and Goshen were:

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Mrs. D. Ottis Pierce, Miss Emma Woodward, Mr. Chas. Rust, Mrs. Abbie Carpenter, Mrs. Mae Burch and Mrs. W. K. Horton, of York city; Miss M. Louise Whitlock, Mrs. S. D. Brown, Morris Brown, Miss Olive Lejewski, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. James G. Blavett, of Patterson; Miss Lena Beck, of Trumansburg, N. Y.

BEGAN WASHING AT MIDNIGHT.

A Jewel of a Servant Who Will Make a Good Wife.

From the Kingston Leader.

A prominent lawyer of Main street was suddenly awakened from his slumbers about 3 o'clock, Monday morning, at his residence by an unusual commotion in the kitchen. Later he ascertained that the servant girl, who is soon to be married and was to leave on that day, was busily engaged in doing the washing, and that her fiancé, instead of bidding his betrothed adieu at an early hour, remained to assist her at the washing by carrying water.

THE SHARKEY-FITZSIMMONS FIGHT

No One in the Audience Saw the Foul-Referee's Decision Denounced as Robbery—Court to be Asked to Restrain Payment of the $10,000 Check.

BY UNITED PRESS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—No one in the audience, last night, saw the alleged foul by Fitzsimmons' knee. Fitzsimmons, however, was fouled repeatedly and was wrestled over the ring, but he never murmured.

Referee Harps' quick disappearance after his decision saved him rough handling. Though Sharkey has the money, Fitzsimmons has the honor. Scores of experts in pugilism declare the decision a plain case of robbery. One declares the knockout was as clean an upper cut as he has ever seen.

Sharkey has undoubtedly improved, but he is entirely outclassed by Fitzsimmons.

Julian and Fitzsimmons both declare they were simply robbed of the purse. Fitzsimmons declares Sharkey is simply a young wrestler and one of the foulest boxers he ever saw. He added that nobody can get a square deal from the thieves who handle fights here.

The matter will go into courts as Julian will ask for an injunction to restrain the payment of the check for $10,000 to Sharkey.

Despite the decision Fitz will meet Sharkey or Corbett in the ring at any time Stuart makes arrangements.

Health

Depends upon keeping the blood in a pure condition, free from disease germs, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cleanses, vitalizes and enriches the blood, throwing out the impurities that clog and irritate the system and permits no lodgment of the seeds of disease. Read the following:

"I cannot recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla too highly for it has done wonders for me. I was

and all run down and my health was so poor I could not get out of doors. I was not able to do anything, being troubled with asthma and heart disease. I was nervous and could not sleep nights. I had become completely discouraged when I happened to read an advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla and concluded to give it a trial. After taking the first bottle I felt better and since taking five bottles I am so much improved that I feel like a new man. I am now able to do a fair day's work and sleep at night. My heart does not trouble me and I have realized great relief for asthma. I feel full of courage once more and life seems brighter and worth living. I would recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all afflicted as I have been, for I know it will help them. If this statement of facts will be of benefit, you are welcome to use it as you please." HENRY J. ## WALKERS' Eat Clams.

Waalkill Engine Co. has not yet arrived at the dignity of a clam club, (klam klub) but it is getting there very fast, if its first clam feast, last evening, is any indication of what may be expected. Clam suppers will be a feature at Waalkills' house this winter.

TWO FATAL ACCIDENTS ON THE ERIE LAST NIGHT.

Charles Smith Instantly Killed by the Milk Train at the James Street Crossing—Fred Logan, Who Sold Apples at Turners, Killed by the Mountain Express—His Body Cut in Many Pieces—A Leg Found on the Truck of a Car at This Station.

Charles Smith, a well known character of this city, was killed at the James street crossing of the Erie, last night, by the milk train. The supposition is that Smith fell from the platform of one of the cars or that he was drawn under the wheels in an attempt to alight from the train. His right arm was nearly severed from the body, every rib was broken and his left ear nearly torn from his head. The face was badly cut and bruised, and in fact there was scarcely a part of the body that was not mutilated in some way.

Smith was not seen in the vicinity of the depot previous to the arrival of the train, and it is thought that he was riding on the train from Howells, where for some time past he has been doing odd chores for Thos. D. King, proprietor of the hotel at that place.

Coroner Decker empaneled the following jury which viewed the remains and will hold an inquest at the Commercial House at 5 o'clock, this afternoon: A. M. Bowler, Chas. Osburn, C. B. Hulse, Jackson Greer, C. H. Shurpe, T. B. Gould, C. H. Brown, R. A. Sayre, A. T. Pierce, W. H. Faulkner and Chas. Higham.

Mr. Smith was about fifty years of age and is survived by his mother and two sisters who reside in Goshen, and by two daughters, Ella and Josephine, of this city.

FRED LOGAN'S SHOCKING DEATH.

When the Mountain Express arrived in this city, last evening, Conductor Fisher was handed a telegram from Turners, instructing him to examine his train for any indications of having struck a boy.

He was horrified to find a human leg firmly wedged under the trucks of one of the cars.

Coroner Decker took charge of the gruesome find and took it to Turners on the milk train. There he found that the severed member belonged to the remains of Fred Logan, a twelve-year-old boy who sold apples and milk on passenger trains at Turners.

The boy had boarded the Mountain Express and the first indication that an accident had happened was when the lad's hat and basket were found at a crossing about 300 feet west of the depot.

The articles were taken to the station, where they were recognized as Logan's, and a search was immediately begun.

A quantity of blood upon the track told only too plainly that a horrible accident had taken place. The head and one arm were found near a culvert, a short distance from the crossing and a portion of the trunk of the body lay alongside the track some distance further on. It is supposed the boy fell under the wheels while attempting to alight from the train after it had got under headway.

An arm was found a short distance from Monroe and the other leg was found on the t. a. m. as above stated. One hand is still missing.

A jury was empaneled and an inquest will be held as soon as the attendance of the crew of the train can be secured.

She was a native of Willow Point, N. Y. Most of her life was spent in Binghamton, but since the death of her husband, Henry Nichols, which occurred about eleven years ago, she made her home with her son, and came to this city about three years ago. Mrs. Nichols was a devout christian and was for many years a member of St. Paul's A. M. E. Church of Binghamton.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF GRACE CHURCH.

The December Meeting at Mrs. H. H. Hunt's—A Pleasant and Profitable Session.

The December meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Church was held, Wednesday afternoon, at the hospitable home of Mrs. H. H. Hunt. The spacious parlor was well filled with ladies when the meeting was opened with the hymn dear to the heart of every church woman, "Jerusalem, the Golden."

The auxiliary prayers were read by Rector Evans, and were followed by the secretary's minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report.

A valuable box was sent to the Rev. J. S. Chamberlain, of Jubilee, Ill., and received by him the day before Thanksgiving. A most gratifying and appreciative letter was read from this old clergyman, who, although seventy-six years old, is doing mission work seventy miles away from his home.

After the transaction of all necessary business connected with the work of the auxiliary, Miss May L. Stewart sang very sweetly "Only Once More," and at the request of the society gave as a second number "Dear Heart."

A comprehensive and able paper on missionary work in Alaska was read by Miss Brown, and was followed by a brief discussion, in which a number of ladies joined, concerning this great country.

Engene Field's sweet and tender story, "The Touch in the Heart," was then read in a very pleasing way by Mrs. Stewart.

At the close of the meeting the ladies were most cordially invited by the hostess to the dining room, where a pleasant half hour was spent over refreshments and in social conversation.

FIREMEN AGAIN CALLED OUT.

Coal from the Stove Cause a Fire in the Electric Light Co.'s Office—Little Damage Done.

For the third night in succession the members of the fire department were called from warm beds to respond to an alarm. At 4:10, this morning, night baggagemaster Charles Purdy, of the Erie, detected a strong smell of smoke and a short investigation located the fire in the office of the Middletown Electric Light and Power Co. on James street, adjoining the Walkkill House. Mr. Purdy sent in an alarm from box 26 and Eags were soon at work and the fire was quickly extinguished.

The fire originated from a stove, the door of which had been left open, allowing live coals to fall on the floor. A large hole was burned in the floor, but beyond this the damage is trifling.

The property was insured through the agency of Case & Taylor.

The Orange Blossom's Gettysburg Reunion Fund.

The Argus acknowledges the receipt of complimentary tickets for the entertainment to be given in the Academy of Music, in Newburgh, Friday evening, Dec. 11th, for the Orange Blossoms' reunion fund.

The fund is being raised for the benefit of members of the 124th Regiment who may desire to attend the reunion of the regiment on the Gettysburg battle field, next summer, and who are unable to bear the expenses of such a trip.

Must Get an Order.

By the new poor law adopted by the Legislature, last winter, Overseers of the Poor are prohibited from giving temporary relief to the poor, without first receiving an order from the Supervisor of the town in which the applicant resides. The State Board of Charities proposes to enforce the provisions of this act and each Overseer will be compelled to make a report showing the name, age, sex and color of the person so relieved.

SKATING ON THIN ICE.

Middletown Young People Take Chances on the First Ice of the Season.

The young people who find pleasure in skating were happy, this morning, when it was discovered that the ice on the mill pond was thick enough to bear the weight of the average person, and the word was passed around and soon the pond was covered with skaters.

The pleasure of the skaters will, of course, be greatly enhanced by the fact that the ice is just barely thick enough to bear their weight and is liable to break at any moment when the weight becomes too great.

shake it off

The general belief among doctors is that consumption itself is very rarely inherited. But the belief is becoming stronger that the tendency to consumption is very generally transmitted from parent to child. If there has been consumption in the family, each member should take special care to prepare the system against it. Live out doors; keep the body well nourished; and treat the first indication of failing health.

of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is a fat-producing food and nerve-tonic. Its use is followed by improved nutrition, richer blood, stronger nerves and a more healthy action of all the organs. It strengthens the power of the body to resist disease. If you have inherited a tendency to weak lungs, shake it off.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been indorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites. Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby. All druggists.

JUST AS GOOD IS NOT SCOTT'S EMULSION.

The Orator Only Partly Right.
"You, you," shouted the orator, pointing his finger at the man with tin pail and overalls; "you, my friend, I venture to say, dare not call your vote your own. Am I right or wrong?"
"I guess you are right," answered the laborer.
"There! Look at him! His vote owned by a soulless corporation!"
"Look here, mister," the man of toil shouted in turn, "don't you go callin' my wife no names like that or you an' me will mix."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Hypothetical Case.
"What did the editor say about your story?" asked the young man's friend.
"I don't believe he liked it very well."
"Well, there are differences in the appreciative faculty as well as in the ability to create. The same man's taste will vary according to circumstances."
"I suggested that, and he agreed with me. He said that if a man found himself on a desert island with nothing to read except my story and a back number city directory, he might read my story."—Washington Star.

THE COUNTY LEGISLATURE

THE ANNUAL SESSION OF ORANGE COUNTY'S SUPERVISORS.

Surrogate's Accounts Audited—To Visit Orange Farm—Coroners' Bills That are Not Properly Made Out—A Discussion Over Constables' Bills—Doctors' Bills in Lunacy Cases—Town or County Charge?—The Ratio Committee's Wrangles.

Bloomington, Dec. 2.—The session of the Board, this morning, was one of those nice, quiet, orderly sessions, which keep up the dignity of the board of law makers of the pleasantest county in the Empire State. Mr. Fredericks appeared with a large box of candies and Mr. Bradley, of Wawayanda, passed around a box of fragrant Havana cigars.

Chairman Goodrich called the Board to order promptly at 11 o'clock and the Committee on Surrogate's Accounts reported that the bills of Special Surrogate John R. Swamy for $281 and ex-Special Surrogate George W. McElroy for $32 were correct and drafts were ordered for those amounts.

An invitation from the Superintendents of the Poor to visit Orange Farm was read and Mr. Fredericks was appointed a committee to fix the date and make arrangements for the visit.

A draft for $60 was ordered drawn to Dr. Wilson for services as jail physician, at Newburgh.

The Board fixed Tuesday, Dec. 8th, at 2 o'clock as the day and hour to decide upon what papers shall this year publish the session laws.

The town of Mt. Hope will raise $584.15 for town audit, $150 for roads and bridges and $1,265.50 to pay for the erection of new bridges in that town.

Mr. Thompson reported that the committee to apportion the indebtedness for railroad bonds between the city of Middletown and the town of Wallkill had decided that Middletown must pay $3,621.46 and Wallkill $1,466.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was different from the morning session and there was plenty of excitement and argument during the entire session.

The first thing to attract the attention of the Board was the coroner's bills. It seems that some of the coroners have been in the habit of sending in slouchy looking bills and have failed to make a full return of all the jurors empaneled and in many instances they have not reported the rooms hired by them for the purpose of holding inquests. In this connection Mr. Brazee complimented Coroner Decker on his bill saying that it was the only one which had come under his notice during his three years' service on this committee, which was not only neat, but absolutely correct in every particular. He spoke of his bill of last year as well as this year, saying that it complied with the law in every particular.

CONSTABLES' BILLS.

The Committee on Constables' Bills got the floor and reported a number of bills as correct and a number as incorrect, and there were a few which were read altogether, the committee claiming that they were properly town charges. Then there was some more fun. Each Supervisor began to look out for the interests of his constituents and explanations were satisfactory in all cases except in the matter of the rates or claims in the town of Chester. Mr. J. J. Hicks claimed that this was not a town charge, and cited District Attorney Rosenberg and Judge Pratt to back his opinion. Under objection the bill went over until tomorrow in order to give Mr. Fredericks a chance to furnish evidence to the effect that it was a town charge.

Dr. J. H. Hunt, of Middletown, was present and asked the Board for permission to hold the annual meeting of the Orange County Medical Society in the Board room next May. Upon motion of Mr. Laws in the request was granted.

DOCTORS' BILLS IN LUNACY CASES.

Then came the question in relation to the payment of doctors' bills for examinations in lunacy.

Mr. Roberson started the ball a rolling by stating that he believed that in a majority of cases that these were properly town charges. He quoted law in support of his theory. The substance of his quotation was that the town, city or village securing the commitment of the insane was liable for the examinations.

Mr. Post, the chairman of the committee having these bills in charge, stated that there was in the neighborhood of $600 worth of bills before the committee, and that but very few of them gave any information as to who had ordered the examination. His committee therefore could not state whether they were properly town or county charges.

Then came Mr. Isaman. He stated that his city was in a bad fix if they were to saddle upon the city all the examinations made there. Oftentimes there came to Middletown persons whose actions, he said, justified the police authorities in ordering an examination. Two cases of this kind had recently occurred there. The people were not residents of Middletown, and while he was not opposed on the ground of humanity to taking care of such persons, he believed that the bills should be paid by some other locality than Middletown. He believed the county was liable in such cases except where they could be identified as residents of some town in the county. As a matter of law he said that the estate of the insane person was really liable, and he confined his remarks to cases where the estate of the person examined was not sufficient to pay the bill.

Mr. Post wanted to know if every other locality in the county was not running the same risk as Middletown. Mr. Isaman said he believed not, and cited the fact that there were more people of this kind who came to Middletown than elsewhere in the county.

Then Mr. Bradley, of Wawayanda, secured the floor. He talked at some length in favor of making the towns settle the bills. He said that under the law the towns had to pay for clothing for such persons and if they had to furnish them clothing, why was not the town liable for physicians services?

THOUGHT THE COUNTY SHOULD PAY.

Mr. Ketcham, of Cornwall, believed that the best interests of all concerned would be served by paying the bills this year as county charges. The bills he said were made out in the usual way. The county had always paid them. If they adopted any other method of paying it would raise a heavy expense upon individual towns, and even the county would be put to greater expense to pay them in this way than it would be to follow the usual course. He favored the payment of these bills by the county and then passing a resolution to govern doctors in the future. They should in cases where the bills are town charges be sent to the town boards. In the present instance, however, he believed that the best interests of all concerned would be served by paying them out of the general fund.

After some general discussion indulged in by a number of the members, Mr. Quick moved that the bills which did not satisfy his actorily state who made the order or the examinations be referred back to the makers and that this information be attached so that a more intelligent discussion of each bill could be made.

This motion was seconded by Mr. Bradley and it was so ordered.

Then Mr. Post stirred up the tempest again by asking what should be done with the bills which were ordered paid at $10 by Supreme Court Justices and declared by them to be county charges. Well, they had a long discussion on this point and then Mr. Ketcham raised the point of order that the motion made by Mr. Quick covered these bills as well, and the Chair decided the point well taken. It would appear from this that one way to get around an order of the Supreme Court would be to take an appeal to the Board of Supervisors. This, however, is only a deduction and is an erroneous one. The justices were in ignorance of the amount allowed by the Board when they made the order.

This settled the discussion of the bills and the doctors were withdrawn from consideration for the rest of the day.

RATIO COMMITTEE WRANGLES.

Then Chairman Fredericks got his Ratio Committee in the committee room and went to work on the ratio table. We don't know just what this report contains, but judging from the sounds which float, or rather rush, from the committee room it is made of something interesting.

Mr. Isaman is a member of this committee and he is a fighter when it comes to protecting the interests of his city. Mr. Tuthill, of Miniskill, is an old war horse on ratio reports and Fredericks is a regular arithmetic on figures. Mr. Mosher, of Newburgh, is an able representative of that city and those voices come forth from the room in a tone which indicates that the men who are behind them mean all they say. They are having a big time in there and the rest of the Board are really worried fearing that there will be nothing but pieces of Supervisors left to do business with after the report is submitted. But after all this is the same old fight. Every town wishes to be lowered and if they are not lowered then there is a big time made. Towns which the local papers say are booming are sure to be poverty stricken when they tell about themselves before the Ratio Committee. It is expected that the committee will report, tomorrow, but—Well, the reports will tell whether they do or not.

THE Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT COURSE.

The Ariel-Grilly Combination on Dec. 14th.

The Ariel-Grilly combination, which opens the Y. M. C. A. entertainment course at the Casino Dec. 14, is one of the strongest and most popular concert organizations now before the public. The programme, combining as it does both vocal and instrumental numbers by the quartette, with the wide versatility which Mr. Grilly furnishes in his improvisations and readings, is one of refined and artistic work, which is unequalled by any other organization in the field.

The other three "attractions" have been selected with equal care. Season tickets for the four entertainments are on sale at J. E. Mills' drug store at the popular price of one dollar each.
